Location of original materials:

A website called restrainingorderabuse.com is infringing on my copyright rights to private photographs taken of me, by me and are entirely owned by myself. The photograph referenced in this report was copied onto your servers without permission. The original photograph, to which I own the exclusive copyrights, cannot be found online (aside from the infringing content). It was a "selfie" – a photograph I took with a cell phone in my private workspace and used on a Researchgate scientific website. I have since removed all photos from the internet due to an ongoing harassment issue which is currently being litigated in Criminal Court. Additionally, I also have an active Injunction Against Harassment against Mr. Greene - the sole operator of restrainingorderabuse.com

- I simply want my photo's removed from his website at this juncture. I do not wish to impact his ability to maintain his site nor his right to free speech.

I could also send you a copy of the original image - to prove it is indeed me, and my own private picture.

Description of original materials:

The links above are 5 separate links to the same photograph (taken in 2011) posted in 5 different places on the restrainingorderabuse.com blog. I believe it is posted in more places on the blog - but I will just have to deal with those as I have time/find them. This is a photograph of myself. I took the photograph with my cell phone in a private and empty meeting room outside of my office at work. I have dark hair in the picture, pulled back and am wearing a grey silk shirt. I took the photograph privately and while alone. There is no

'fair-use' type of issue that applies to this image. It is my private photograph and copyright. I want it removed from Mr. Todd Greene's restrainingorderabuse.com website.

I have a good faith belief that use of the copyrighted materials described above as allegedly infringing is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the information in the notification is accurate and that I am the copyright owner or am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

I acknowledge that a copy of this infringement notice and any correspondence related to it, including any contact information I provided above (address, telephone number, and email address), will be forwarded to the user who uploaded the content at issue.
