A website called restrainingorderabuse.com is infringing on my copyright rights to private photographs taken of me, by me and are entirely owned by myself. The photograph referenced in this report was copied onto your servers without permission. The original photograph, to which I own the exclusive copyrights, cannot be found online (aside from the infringing content). It was a photograph I took for fun at home many, many years ago - I have no idea how Mr. Greene obtained it (or the prior one I reported, or the next one I am reporting!). I have since removed all photos from the internet due to an ongoing harassment issue which is currently being litigated in Criminal Court. Additionally, I also have an active Injunction Against Harassment against Mr. Greene - the sole operator of restrainingorderabuse.com

- I simply want my photo's removed from his website at this juncture. I do not wish to impact his ability to maintain his site nor his right to free speech.

I could also send you a copy of the original image - to prove it is indeed me, and my own private picture. Or a copy of the Injunction, and/or my attorneys information.

Description of original materials:

Within the link above is a digitally altered photograph of me (I made the alterations, for fun). My face is green and hair is partially blue. The photograph (taken around 2003/2004) has been posted in at least one spot on the restrainingorderabuse.com blog. This is a photograph of myself. It was taken in the privacy of my own home. I took the photograph with a Nikon digital camera. I have dark hair in the picture, (although it is altered to look blue and green) which is long and hanging about my face. I took the photograph privately and while alone at home. There is no 'fair-use' type of issue that applies to this image. It is my private photograph and copyright. I want it removed from Mr. Todd Greene's restrainingorderabuse.com website.

I have a good faith belief that use of the copyrighted materials described above as allegedly infringing is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.

I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the information in the notification is accurate and that I am the copyright owner or am authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed. I acknowledge that a copy of this infringement notice and any correspondence related to it, including any contact information I provided above (address, telephone number, and email address), will be forwarded to the user who uploaded the content at issue.
